Hello,

My name is Saminder (Sam). I am the Founder, President and CEO of the Canadian South Asian Women's Chamber of Commerce (CSAWCC).

We are a national non-profit organization dedicated to representing and promoting businesses owned and/or operated by South Asian women. Through a unified network of community and business sector leaders, the Chamber seeks to create a supportive network of like-minded business owners and individuals from across Canada.

I am reaching out to your BIA today to share that our membership has opened. I humbly request if you could share this with your BIA members to see if there is interest in joining our organization.

For more information about our memberships, please visit csawcc.ca/membership.

If your BIA or any members have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me here or to our team at info@csawcc-cccfca.ca.
